"I've worked with Emily on several projects at ETech, then Perficient and was always delighted with the process and the results – as were our clients. Emily works extremely well with clients in determining their needs and then in developing designs that are clean and easy to implement. She is extremely personable and professional. I will be thrilled when I have the opportunity to work with her again." March 21, 2009

Chuck McElwee , Lead Technical Consultant , Perficient

"I worked with Emily Wahl for two years while she was a Senior Graphics Designer at Perficient Inc. Her unique ability to grasp new technologies allowed for her seamless and successful interaction with developers and to be a valuable asset to the team.

During our work together at Perficient, she continually produced quality code, design and documentation. She is an intelligent and motivated individual and I highly recommend her."

Afshin Zavareh, .Net Developer, Perficient

"Emily has worked on several diverse projects at the Library. She is a talented designer. She also brings a wonderful attitude, patience and superb people-skills to projects. As her knowledge about us developed I could also count on Emily to handle business relationships and communications within the Library consistently and with professionalism." March 18, 2009
